Album Images from Asuka

Our Wedding Albums

After a ton of research into the best album suppliers in the world, the main albums I supply are from Asuka, Folio, and Queensberry. After investing your time and money in capturing the best possible images of your wedding day we really believe in showing them off in the best possible way - something that will last for generations to come. All my albums are professionally designed and printed to a very high standard, much better than the DIY options available, unfortunately this means they are slightly more expensive!

The cost generally varies by supplier, size, number of pages, and cover style. Some manufacturers also do matching parents albums. I find a thirty page album is a good starting point (50-80 images) but some will want more.

I want to produce an album that is perfect for the needs, budget and style of every client some of the options can get a bit complicated so please get in touch if there is anything you are looking for which isn't mentioned.

Asuka Presentation Book

Our standard wedding package now includes a Asuka DVD or USB presentation case with a small 6 page booklet featuring a few of your favourite photos. The included DVD/USB has a slideshow of all the images set to your favourite music plus all of the final images in high resolution for you to use as you wish.

Do It Yourself!

We try to keep our album costs as low as possible because we want our images to be perfectly presented, but obviously you are free to make your own album from the many suppliers available online. After some research I have found the best quality of these to be Blurb Proline (www.blurb.co.uk/proline) and Photobox Premium PhotoBook (www.photobox.co.uk/shop/photo-books/premium-photobook). As I mentioned the quality will never be as good as the options above, however they do have the advantage they are cheaper so you can usually include more pages and images.

If you don't want to get into designing these yourself we can also design and supply them for you for an additional charge.

How does the album design process work?

Come back to us at any time if your thinking about an album - we'll hang to your original master files for at least 2 years though obviously album prices can change over time. Once you're ready to go ahead let us know some of your favourite images, we'll make sure they're included and design a layout that includes them plus any others we feel help tell the story and work with the layout. We then create a design for your album that suits the pictures and the story which we send to you for approval. You can add, remove or swap images for others for up to 3 rounds of changes, after which we would have to assess whether an additional fee was necessary.

How long does it take to make an album?

The initial design process can take up to a month, and each round of changes up to two weeks. Once the design is approved will take around 4-6 weeks for the album to be manufactured at our suppliers.

What's on the disc or USB?

Your final DVD or USB will include all of the final images that were taken on your day (the ones you saw in your client area), minus any you request are removed. We include the images in high resolution for printing, and low resolution for sharing. These can be accessed by putting the DVD into any PC or laptop. We also include a bespoke slideshow of all the images set to your choice of music which can be played on a TV in a standard DVD player or via the USB port of most TVs. If you don't want all of the images in the slideshow then please let us know in advance.
